Description

+++ FREIGHT FORWARDER ACE +++

Would you like to work in an international environment where your decisions have an impact? As a forwarding and logistics services clerk at DENKINGER, that's exactly where you are. You are the link between our colleagues on the road and our customers, organize national and international transports and ensure that goods of all kinds reach their destination safely and efficiently.

Your day-to-day work is characterized by challenges and the constant search for the best route. You play a key role in controlling and monitoring transportation, always keeping an eye on the order and the costs. It's not just about logistics know-how, but also about your ability to advise our customers, prepare quotations and process orders. You are the linchpin that ensures smooth processes.

If you are a numbers person, have a talent for languages, enjoy working with people and are open to new challenges, then this apprenticeship is just right for you. With a start in September and a duration of 3 years, we prepare you for a career that is as dynamic as the logistics world itself. Are you ready to become part of our team and help shape the future of logistics? Then let's waste no time and get to know each other. Your future at DENKINGER is already waiting for you.
